Covington Heritage Foundation

Our Mission

To preserve and cultivate Covington's culture, character and community...

Our Goals

- Foster knowledge and appreciation of Covington's rich heritage through research, publications and exhibitions.

- Disseminate important historical information through lectures and discussions.

- Collect, research, interpret and preserve information or items of historical interest in conjunction with the establishment of a Covington Conservation District.

- Interpret and preserve the history of Covington through the inclusion of a museum heritage collection.

- Consult with historical and preservation groups to provide programs of community interest.

- Your CHF membership includes an informative quarterly E-newsletter with upcoming events, and an annual membership party. You also will be a vital part of our future plans: identifying and marking historical sites, expanding our museum collection, more home tours, a heritage cookbook, programs featuring our rich history and people, the continuation of the popular "Whisperings" event in Covington's Cemetery No. 1, and so much more!

- Annual membership and donations are tax deductible to extent that the law allows. Your contribution supports the preservation, maintenance and administration of the Covington Heritage Foundation.
